MINUTES

Welcome

Andrew introduced himself to the Board. He works for Reagan National Advertising in Salt Lake and Las Vegas. He works with municipalities, regulations, real estate sites, and legislatures regarding advertising.

General Session (Open to the Public)

- Adoption of Minutes of Previous Meeting

Rick made the motion to adopt the minutes without change. Mike seconded the motion and the vote was unanimous in its favor.

- Approval of Recommended Actions from Executive Session

Rick made a motion to accept Executive Bail Bonds application. Mike seconded the motion, and the vote was unanimous in its favor.

- New Business

- Update on Annual Fiduciary Statement / Darrel Powell

Notices were mailed out Friday, February 10, 2006. Statements are due April 1.

- Old Business

- Notary requirement changes - Update / Wayne Carlos

Wayne sent word that a letter has been mailed to everyone about the new notary requirements. Dominic said that another letter may need to be mailed out about the requirement to include the surety's address and phone number. Mickey said Tracy would send them back if the bond form does not include this.

- HB403, Bailbond Amendments / Perri Babalis

Perri brought this bill to the attention of the Board. Gregory Hughes is the sponsor. The bill was filed Monday at 6:44 a.m. It proposes changes to the definition of bail bond insurance, allows bail bond companies to pay forfeitures prior to the judgment being entered, amends the process of proof of bail bond, and details the plea and abeyance process. Mickey suggested a board member attend the committee meeting to support it if the board supports it.

Adjourn

Motion to adjourn by Rick, seconded by Bert with a unanimous vote at 12:37 p.m.
